

BELHAVEN UNIVERSITY

GRADUATE TEACHING ASSISTANT DANCE DEPARTMENT

Overview

Graduate Teaching Assistants in the Dance Department are awarded tuition remission for the Master of Fine Arts in Dance program in exchange for teaching undergraduate dance courses. Successful candidates must apply for and be admitted to the MFA in Dance program in order to qualify for this position. A teaching audition and interview will be required for selected candidates.

Responsibilities

- Teach a minimum of two undergraduate dance courses per semester (3-6 total load hours), as assigned by the Chair of Dance. Courses could include Ballet, Modern Dance, Tap, Jazz, Composition, Improvisation, or other courses depending on the candidate's experience. Graduate Teaching Assistants are expected to adhere to University guidelines for teaching faculty, including preparing a syllabus for students, conducting classes and examinations, and meeting with students as necessary. Graduate Teaching Assistants are supervised by graduate faculty and receive feedback through faculty observation and student course surveys.
- Assist with operational responsibilities in the Dance Department including attendance at specified faculty meetings and Dance Department meetings, assistance with recruitment trips, serving as an assistant with one additional course as needed, etc.
- Maintain full-time enrollment in the MFA in Dance program
- Maintain a minimum cumulative 3.2 grade point average

Qualifications

- A bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college or university in dance or a dance-related area; the Graduate Teaching Assistant will demonstrate the ability to perform graduate level work as exhibited by an undergraduate GPA of 2.8 overall and 3.0 in dance-related studies
- Minimum of 3 years of professional experience in the field of dance as a performer, choreographer, and/or instructor
- Record of success as a dance educator
- The Graduate Teaching Assistant must articulate a Christian worldview in one's teaching and academic discipline and fully support the University Vision, Mission, and Statement of Faith.

Applications

Please submit your CV/resume and cover letter outlining your suitability for this position including an explanation of your interest in Christian higher education. Confidential review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position(s) are filled. Confidential questions and nominations may be submitted to:

Monica French, Provost Office Projection Manager
mfrench@belhaven.edu

MFA in Dance application information is found at: <http://www.belhaven.edu/dance/mfa-dance.htm>. For questions about the MFA in Dance program, please email mfadance@belhaven.edu.