

BELHAVEN UNIVERSITY

Adjunct Faculty Position

Discipline: Political Science

Belhaven University is currently seeking Christ centered, student focused, highly qualified and motivated instructors to teach Political Science. Our Political Science adjuncts are crucial in mentoring and guiding the next generation of political science and law school aspirants as they seek to engage the world.

Available Courses:

- PSC-303 – Legislative Process
- PSC-315 – History of Western Political Theory
- HIS-319 – U. S. Political Theory
- HIS-325 – Principles of Just War
- We are also open to offering a Political Science course in an adjunct faculty member's area of expertise upon consultation with the Dean of Humanities & Ministry.

Responsibilities:

- Teach undergraduate courses at the Jackson campus.
- Communicate with department chair and/or other administration.
- Meet faculty guidelines regarding attendance, student engagement, and deadlines.

Qualifications:

- Master's Degree in Political Science (or related discipline) is preferred.
- Professional experience may be substituted for some academic credentials.
- Teaching experience is preferred.

Please review Belhaven University's Commitment Statement including our employee expectations. Should you receive a job offer, you will be asked to accept this agreement by signing it. Applicants must be able to fully support the University vision, mission, and statement of faith and contribute to the spiritual and academic fellowship of the University.

Applications:

Please submit your CV/resume and cover letter outlining your suitability for this position including an explanation of your interest in Christian higher education. Confidential review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position(s) are filled. Confidential questions and nominations may be submitted to:

Monica French, Director of Academic Administration
mfrench@belhaven.edu