

FACULTY POSITION
IN
Business Administration
Chattanooga, TN

Belhaven University, a Christian university committed to the ministry of integrating faith and learning, is searching for the ideal candidate for a Business Administration professor with credentials in Finance/Accounting who has a heart for students as well as a heart for Christ Jesus at its Chattanooga, Tennessee campus.

Responsibilities

Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate and graduate Business students in classroom and online environments to nontraditional students. In addition to finance, the ability to teach global business, entrepreneurship, economics or accounting would be a plus. Additional responsibilities include providing academic advising, mentoring research projects and tutoring in quantitative subject areas.

Qualifications

PhD or DBA in a business administration field. In addition, the candidate must show a commitment to ministering to nontraditional students in their lives, academics, and careers in an evening school setting.

The successful candidate must articulate a Christian worldview in one's teaching and academic discipline and fully support the University Vision, Mission, and Statement of Faith (<http://www.belhaven.edu/Belhaven/mission.htm>).

Send:

- Letter of intent, including the following explanations:
 1. Your interest in Christian higher education
 2. How your background fulfills the above description
 - a. Responsibilities
 - b. Qualifications
- Vita
- Three to four paragraph statement of how you would integrate the Biblical worldview into all instructional content
- Describe your personal faith
- Names of four references (including your local pastor) – please provide phone numbers, addresses and nature of relationship
- Transcripts (all undergraduate and graduate)

To:

Lori Farmer
Executive Assistant to Sr. VP & Provost
Belhaven University
1500 Peachtree Street, Campus Box 164
Jackson, MS 39202