

FACULTY POSITION IN Visual Arts

Belhaven College, a Christian college committed to the ministry of integrating faith and learning, is searching for the ideal candidate for a tenure-track position in visual arts at the Jackson campus, who has a heart for students as well as a heart for Christ Jesus.

Responsibilities

Responsibilities include teaching beginning, intermediate, and advanced courses in painting and drawing and foundation courses in 2-D design, as well as other studio and/or academic courses as qualified; supervising senior projects and internships in areas of expertise. Ability to teach introductory art history/art appreciation for general education curriculum preferred. Administrative responsibilities include advising students and assisting with departmental duties such as management of materials and equipment, curriculum development, maintenance of departmental handbook and website, organization of excursions and guest speakers, gallery management, and other areas as needed.

Qualifications

Requirements include M.F.A. or Ph.D., preferably in painting or drawing; college teaching experience; significant record of ongoing fine art production and exhibition; ability to teach and mentor students working in both traditional and contemporary/conceptual visual languages.

The successful candidate must articulate a Christian worldview in one's teaching and academic discipline and fully support the College Vision, Mission, and Statement of Faith (<http://www.belhaven.edu/Belhaven/mission.htm>).

Compensation

Compensation and rank are commensurate with qualifications and experience. The College supplements major medical insurance and contributes an additional 8% of salary to a retirement fund.
