

Bettye H. Quinn

Associate Professor of Education
Director of Elementary Education

B.A. Belhaven College
M.Ed. Mississippi College

Academic Articles

Readings for Advent, Readings for Lent, contributor, Wells, UMC, 2002, 2003, 2004

Creative Activity or Performance

Gave speeches to Women of the Covenant, Presbyterian Church, Wells Church Homecoming, Women of the Church – Clinton Methodist Church, new staff at Belhaven College, Master Learner classes – Belhaven College, Alpha Delta Kappa Sorority – Belhaven College

Professional Leadership

Adviser, RHO Chapter of KDE and participant in annual meeting

Sponsor, Kappa Delta Epsilon, Belhaven Chapter, 1966-2006

Local President of Jackson Reading Association

Board Member, MEA, 10 years

Conference Chairman, Kappa Delta Epsilon, regional meeting, fall 2005

State President, Association of Childhood Education, Mississippi Association of Teacher Educators

Member, visiting team for school accreditation SACS (Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), State of MS, 20 years

Editor, Department of Classroom Teachers Newsletter, 2 years

Regional Historian, Alpha Delta Kappa, 2 years

Columnist, MEA Journal, 5 years

Editor, AAUW local newsletter, 4 years

Professional Presentations

History of Belhaven College, presentation to freshman Master Learner class, Belhaven College

Panel for Legacy of Learning, November, 2006

“Rise and Shine”, Clinton Methodist Church, November, 2006

Educator Workshops on Learning Styles in Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee, 1990-2000

In-service Teacher Workshops in Hinds County and Jackson Public Schools on Creativity

Presentations at conferences for Mississippi Reading Association in Biloxi. MS.

Association of Christian Schools in Alabama

Association of Early Childhood in Jackson, MS.

Awards

Professor of the Year, Belhaven Leadership Council

Bettye Quinn Alumni House and Welcome Center, Belhaven College, 2002

Good Neighbor Award from WJTV

Healthcare Spirit Award from MBMC