

Wynn Kenyon

Professor of Philosophy
Chair of the Philosophy Department and Division of Ministry and Human Services

Ph.D. University of Miami
M.Div. Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
M.A. University of Miami
B.A. Marietta College

Academic Articles

Family article, "Table Talk" Magazine (forthcoming)

Creative Activity or Performance

Developed and am teaching course "Christian Perspective" for On-line education.

Teaching and redoing slides for On-line "Introduction to Worldviews"

Talk on Fact/Value Dichotomy for Faculty Workshop for fall 07

Developing course on Apologetics

Developed course, lectures, PowerPoint presentations, and tests for online course WVC 100 for our virtual campus.

Developing use of previously mentioned materials in traditional classes.

Developed material for course on the Da Vinci Code

Professional Presentations

"The Logic of Evolution Debate" at the John Gerstner Memorial Conference, 2004

Freedom Conferences, lecturer, Ligonier, PA, November 2003, November 2004

"Thinking God's Thoughts," Table Talk, June 2003

Awards

Humanities Teachers Award, Mississippi Humanities Council 2003

Academic Research

Apologetics
John Gerstner