Welcome

The Belhaven University arts calendar for 2012-2013 has something for every taste, and we want to inform you of the wide range of quality productions, concerts, and exhibitions that we are offering. Knowing that attending performances can be expensive—especially for families—we will continue to offer complimentary tickets to many arts events. Please look at the programs in this issue of Arts Ablaze, decide what you would like to see, mark it on your calendar, and call the box office to reserve your seat. You can also find updates and additional performance information at http://arts.belhaven.edu/schedule.htm. Whether in the Visual Art Gallery, the Dance Theatre, the Concert Hall, the Recital Room or the Blackbox Theatre, a rich and diverse arts season awaits you. The arts are important. Don’t miss these wonderful opportunities to engage your imagination and nurture your spirit.

Choral and Vocal Arts: Handel’s Messiah
Sunday, 2:30 PM, Concert Hall (Matinee)
For more than a decade, Dr. Christopher Shelt has given every member of the Belhaven Choral and Vocal Arts programs the opportunity to perform Messiah. Belhaven’s performance is excerpted from the entirety of Handel’s oratorio, maintaining the continuity of its comprehensive biblical portrait of the life and work of Jesus; his birth, death, resurrection, return, and eternal reign. Dr. Shelt will conduct the 80 voices of Belhaven Concert Choir and Chorale, along with soloists and orchestra in concertato style, contrasting large choir and small choir textures. Don’t miss this musical portrayal of the life and times of Jesus, the Messiah. Complimentary admission. Doors open at 2 pm.

January 18 & 19

Opera Arts
Little Opera for Children: The Pied Piper of Hamelin by Seymour Barab
Friday, January 18, 7:30 PM
Saturday, January 19, 10 AM, 2:30 PM and 7:30 PM, Concert Hall
Ever hear the expression “You’ve got to pay the piper?” It comes from a very old story dating from the Middle Ages about a Piper in a pied (multi-colored) outfit who has a flute endowed with magical powers. Belhaven Opera Arts is proud to produce another Seymour Barab operatic adaptation of the classic, The Pied Piper of Hamelin. American Seymour Barab (1921-) received a Lifetime Achievement Award by the National Opera Association. Kurt Vonnegut says: “Barab’s music is full of magic. He proved to an atheist that God exists.” Dr. Christopher Shelt and Belhaven Vocal Arts students present this clever one-act Barab classic. Saturday morning family matinee is sponsored by Mississippi Opera. Complimentary admission. Doors open 30 minutes before show time.

During the 2012-2013 Dance at Belhaven season, the Dance Department is delighted to offer a variety of concerts via our Belhaven University Dance Ensemble, Dance Ministry Ensemble and the Senior Dance Concert showcasing graduating senior dance majors. The Community Dance Concert involves Belhaven University artists as well as community wide dancers and artists. All of our events include original compositions created by our innovative dance faculty, seasoned guest artists and students studying dance crafting. For this series, I invite you to experience diverse styles of classical and contemporary ballet and modern dance displaying an array of artistic expressions that will evoke your imagination and enrich your soul. Mark your calendar for our special family friendly storyline dance production in the Spring of 2013. This event will warm the hearts of all ages.
