

Adjunct Instructors – Atlanta Campus

Belhaven University, a Christian University committed to the integration of faith and learning, invites applicants for adjunct instructors at our Atlanta campus. Our classes are in an accelerated, adult studies format meeting one evening a week.

All adjunct instructors are required to have at least a Master's Degree from a regionally accredited institution with a minimum of 18 graduate hours in their teaching discipline and an understanding of, and a commitment to, the integration of evangelical Christian faith within their academic discipline. In order to teach in our graduate programs, instructors must also have a PhD, JD or other terminal degree.

We are currently seeking qualified adjunct instructors in the following areas:

Undergraduate:

Biology, Business (Accounting, Operations, Economics, Finance), English Composition and Literature, Mathematics, Psychology, History

Graduate (PhD, DBA, JD, terminal degree required):

Accounting and Finance, Business (Entrepreneurship, Human Resources, Marketing), Law, Economics, Quantitative/Statistics, HealthCare Administration, Public Administration

Application Process:

Send:

1. Letter of intent
2. Resume or Curriculum Vitae
3. Originals of all higher education transcripts
4. Personal statement of faith – must agree with Belhaven's faith statement
5. A statement of how you would teach your specific academic discipline from a biblical perspective
6. A statement on the role student participation plays in your classroom
7. Six references – 3 professional and 3 personal (Include relationship, phone number, and email and mailing addresses)
8. There may be further requirements depending on discipline

To:

Dr. Kotina W. Hall
Dean of Faculty
Belhaven University Atlanta
4151 Ashford Dunwoody Road
Suite 130
Atlanta, GA 30319

You will be contacted promptly after your application has been received.