

Donald Hubele

Associate Professor of English
Chair of the English Department
D.A. Middle Tennessee State University
Th.G. Baptist Bible College
M.A. California State University
B.A. Malone College

Books

An Introduction to Literature. Liberty University Press. 1985, Revised 1988

Academic Articles

"Dante." Wynn Kenyon, editor. Belhaven Press. (forthcoming)

"Chaucer." Wynn Kenyon, editor. Belhaven Press. (forthcoming)

"Luther." Wynn Kenyon, editor. Belhaven Press. (forthcoming)

"Machiavelli." Wynn Kenyon, editor. Belhaven Press. (forthcoming)

"Shakespeare." Wynn Kenyon, editor. Belhaven Press. (forthcoming)

Creative Activity or Performance

Gospel soloist in local churches, 1979-present

Lead role of Smudge in Forever Plaid, Jackson, MS, February 2006

Performed in over 40 Jackson Jug Revival performances. All members are Belhaven students, alumni or faculty members. We have played at churches, nursing homes, blues festivals, weddings, fund-raisers, poetry readings and various campus events. We have opened the Student Art Show for the last three years and have played three times at the Student Center for the Belhaven Activities Team, 2003-2006.

The Railroad to Heaven, a Jackson Jug Revival CD, 2005

Role in chorus for Oklahoma! Jackson, MS, 2004

Professional Leadership

Sole judge for "Poet of the Year," Mississippi Poetry Society

Professional Presentations

"Patronage or Parsimony: The Evolution of Employer-Employee Relationships as Shown in a Variety of Works of Western Literature," Christianity and the Academy Annual Conference. Memphis, TN (April, 2008). Published in conference proceedings.

"Patronage or Parsimony: The Key to Business Success is Healthy Employer-Employee Relationships." The International Academy of Business and Public Administration Disciplines. Orlando, FLA. (January, 2009). Published in conference proceedings.

"Robert Burns: A Rock Star of British Romanticism." Society of English-Speaking Peoples Annual Conference. Jackson, MS. (May, 2009).

"Literary Criticism: Art or Artifice," a series of three presentations to the annual convention of the Mississippi Association of Junior Colleges, Itawamba Community College, Tupelo, MS, April, 2007.

"Leap of Faith? The Transition from Two-year to Four-year Colleges." annual convention of the Two-Year College English Association in Mississippi (TYCAM), Itawamba Community College, Tupelo, MS, September, 2006

"The Lesser Lights," a series of three presentations to the annual convention of the Mississippi Association of Junior Colleges, April, 2006

"The Art of Literary Criticism," a series of three presentations to the annual convention of the Mississippi Association of Junior Colleges, April, 2003

"Boat Rhapsodizing in American Literature: A Window into World Views," Mississippi Humanities Council, October, 2002

"Emily Dickinson and Her Friends," a reader's theatre presentation for the annual meeting of the Mississippi Poetry Society, October, 2001

"Breakfast with George Herbert," a reader's theatre presentation for the annual meeting of the Mississippi Poetry Society, October, 2001

Various lectures on Shakespeare topics presented to tourists, locals and for-credit student groups at the Stratford [Canada] Shakespeare Festival, 1995-1997

Since 1979, dozens of presentations, lectures and addresses to schools, school associations, churches, denominational meetings and missions conferences on topics related to the integration of faith and learning.

Academic Research

Biographical vignettes of authors in the WVC curriculum