Avner Eisenberg to Perform at Belhaven College Feb. 27

JACKSON, Miss. (Jan. 13, 2004) — Avner Eisenberg, internationally acclaimed clown and theatre performer, will perform his one-man show, Avner the Eccentric: Exceptions to Gravity, at Belhaven College Friday, Feb. 27. The performance begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Concert Hall of the Belhaven College Center for the Arts, located at 835 Riverside Drive.

Best known for his endearing portrayal of The Jewel, the loveable holy man in The Jewel of the Nile, Eisenberg also will conduct daily workshops Feb. 26 and 27 for students who are auditioning for 2004-2005 Belhaven theatre scholarships. Eisenberg also will assist with scholarship auditions Feb. 27.

Admission to the Friday evening performance is $10 for adults, $5 for students, children and seniors. Group discounts are available. Seating is reserved. For more information, call the Belhaven College box office at (601) 965-7026.

Avner the Eccentric defies the barriers of language and culture and has toured extensively all of the United States and abroad. Eisenberg is often a featured performer at comedy, magic and theatre festivals, where he has won numerous awards. In addition, he has developed silent theatre skills as a therapeutic tool and teaches workshops and master classes for students and professionals in theatre, health care, education and counseling.

Belhaven College is a Christian liberal arts college with campuses in Jackson, Miss., Memphis, Tenn., and Orlando, Fla. The vision of Belhaven College is to prepare men and women academically and spiritually to serve Christ Jesus in their careers, in human relationships and in the world of ideas.
