Belhaven College Named Among Best Christian Places to Work

JACKSON, Miss. (April 23, 2004) — Belhaven College today was named among the 50 “Best Christian Places to Work” by Christianity Today magazine. Belhaven College was listed second among higher education institutions with 151 to 300 employees.

To qualify for this recognition, Belhaven faculty and staff participated in an online survey composed of 66 questions covering areas of trust, ethics, organizational commitment to employees and overall management effectiveness. More than 90 percent of campus employees completed the survey. The responses of all participating organizations were evaluated by a panel of independent judges.

Among the areas Belhaven scored highest were the level of Christian fellowship in the organization and satisfaction with the recognition received for doing a good job.

This is the second year Christianity Today has conducted the nationwide survey, which highlights Christian organizations that focus on building a culture of trust.

Belhaven College is a Christian liberal arts college with campuses in Jackson, Miss., Memphis, Tenn., and Orlando, Fla. The vision of Belhaven College is to prepare men and women academically and spiritually to serve Christ Jesus in their careers, in human relationships and in the world of ideas.
