Joshua Squad Plans Trip for May 2005

Jackson, Miss. (December 8, 2004) – Belhaven College’s Joshua Squad, a ministry group of college students that performs mime, mask, comedia and pantomime, is currently planning and raising funds for a tour of Switzerland and northern Italy in May 2005.

The Joshua Squad, under the direction of Dr. Lou Campbell, chair of the theatre department, has taken previous mission trips to Japan, Washington state, Ukraine, the Philippines and Great Britain.

They are currently raising around $3,000 per person for this tour and interested parties may book the Joshua Squad for workshops or performances. Please contact Dr. Campbell at lcampbell@belhaven.edu or call 601-974-6473. Check their website at http://www.belhaven.edu/arts/Theatre/joshua_squad.htm.

Participates in the Joshua Squad are:
Dr. Lou and Laura Campbell
Percy Ferguson from Natchez, Miss.
Jonathan Lowery from Jackson, Miss.
Amile Wilson from Jackson, Miss.
Emily Skinner from Lancaster, N.Y.
Libby Mille from Gretna, La.
Leah Englund from Milwaukee, Wis.
Tyler Hogan from Dover, Del.
B.J. Franklin from McComb, Miss.
Jennifer Moore from Guthrie, Okla.
Rosh Raines from Industry, Pa.

Belhaven College is a Christian liberal arts college founded in 1894 and is the only evangelical college that offers majors in each of the creative arts; art, music, dance theatre and creative writing. The vision of Belhaven College is to prepare men and women academically and spiritually to serve Christ Jesus in their careers, in human relationships and in the world of ideas. Belhaven College has campuses in Jackson, Miss., Memphis, Tenn., and Orlando, Fla.
