

Quick Facts

AN ELITE AMERICAN COLLEGE. Belhaven is 1 of only 25 schools in the U.S. nationally accredited in all four arts—Visual Art, Music, Dance, and Theatre.

12:1 STUDENT TO FACULTY RATIO. Professors are more than just teachers in the classroom—they get to know their students, invite them into their homes, and many of them even live within walking distance of the campus!

PERSONALIZED PROGRAM. The ELAC Studies Program is designed around the needs of Asian students.

CHRISTIAN ENVIRONMENT. Students are taught from a biblical worldview and encouraged in their faith.

SECURE CAMPUS. Situated in the heart of the Belhaven historic district, the campus is surrounded by lovely homes and stately pine trees. Neighborhood and campus security are visible and available at all hours.

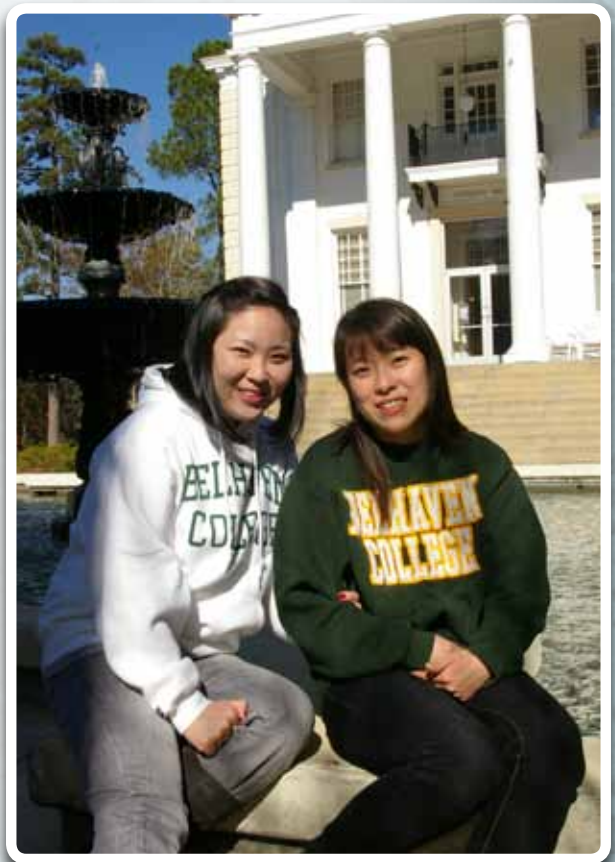

RESIDENCE LIFE. Students live on campus in centrally located residence halls, and they are mentored by the friendly Residence Life staff.

REGIONAL ATTRACTIONS. Mississippi Blues, New Orleans jazz, Elvis Presley's birthplace, and the Atlanta Braves are all within driving distance.

CULTURE—AROUND THE CORNER! Students can have tea in the up and coming Fondren Arts District, enjoy neighborhood dining, walk to college football games or theatre events, and visit the local art and nature museums—all less than 3 miles away!

English LANGUAGE AND American CULTURE STUDIES PROGRAM

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI USA

English LANGUAGE AND American CULTURE STUDIES PROGRAM

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI USA

STUDYING ABROAD, MADE EASY. Learning a new language, customs, and culture all at once can put stress on even the most diligent student. At Belhaven College we have made it easier with a great opportunity for Asian students. The English Language and American Culture (ELAC) Studies Program emphasizes learning the language and knowing the culture before beginning college level study. Tuition and Fees are $8,390 and Room and Board is $3,060 per semester. Special scholarships are available.

In our English Language and American Culture Studies Program you can:

EARN COLLEGE CREDIT while you learn the English language. (up to 12 hours)

ENJOY THE CAMPUS: Beautiful oak trees, fountains, and open landscapes are a regular part of your college life. Friends around every corner in the residence hall, short distances to class, and the centrally located cafeteria make living convenient, so you can stay focused on learning.

CHRISTIAN-BASED TEACHING ENVIRONMENT: Know that the information about this new world around you is coming from a Christian perspective where faculty and staff care about your mind and your soul. It's information with the power of knowledge as well as the power of faith.