

Cynthia Leavelle, ESL

Director of English Language and Culture Project
cleavelle@belhaven.edu

M.A. English as a Second Language, University of North Texas
B.S. Secondary Education, University of North Texas

Books Authored:

The Cord: The Love Story of Salmon and Rahab, Crossbooks Publishing, October 2010;
Functional Analysis of Connectives in English: Implications for the Teaching of English as Second Language (thesis);
The Springs: The Love Story of Othniel and Acsah;
Christmas at Longwood (novella in Plantation Christmas Weddings);
He Leadeth Me (ghostwritten for Audley Galbraith Hamrick)

Presentations:

2011 AMTESOL Conference Auburn, Alabama "Drama Queens: Getting Students to Converse in Conversation Class," January 28, 2011

Professional Leadership:

International English Language Testing System (IELTS) Certified Writing and Speaking Examiner