The HAVEN is Passionate.

As one of only 39 colleges or universities in the U.S. nationally accredited in all four areas of the arts—visual arts, music, dance and theatre, Belhaven has a deep and enduring commitment to the making of art. Student artists thrive and are thoroughly prepared for significant artistic careers.

The experience is truly life-changing! I had no idea that I could work so hard or soar so high! I found my footing as an artist at Belhaven.

Challenging preparation equips your mind and heart to engage the world of ideas, achieve career success, and honor God through excellence. Our faculty are committed to teaching. Our students gain from highly qualified and well-experienced faculty all the way through their Belhaven education, instead of teaching assistants like the majority of public university's general core and introductory courses.

Globally Connected

Here, the world comes to you, and you go to the world—guided by faculty who help you integrate academic insights with biblical truth so you can effectively impact the world and its complex brokenness with the hope of Christ and a life of service.

Supportively Caring

Faculty, coaches, and staff support your unique learning styles, needs, and passions with mentoring relationships characterized by compassion, encouragement, understanding, and respect.

Nationally Recognized

Our vibrant learning community inspires you to unleash your God-given creativity—because imagination is vital to success in every profession and to embracing future challenges with hope and resolve.

Surprisingly Affordable

Competitive pricing, strong scholarships, and innovative degree design with accommodating scheduling ensure you will graduate in 4 years (not 5 years—or more) with a top-quality, private, Christ-centered education at public university prices!
