Tiffany Delgado & Hilary Mauler, Piano

When audiences hear the Delgado-Mauler piano duo perform, they are surprised to hear that they've only been playing together for a short time. Dr. George Keck, Ph.D in musicology from the University of Iowa, said that the duo has "worked out the problems of ensemble playing." Tiffany Delgado and Hilary Mauler first got together as a duo for an ensemble class they were taking at Brigham Young University in April, 2012. Their instructor, Dr. Irene Peery-Fox, encouraged the duo to continue and to look into competing. The team decided to spend the summer learning and recording the required repertoire for the Ellis Duo Piano Competition, sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs. Much of the time spent preparing for this competition was done as the two lived hours away, on different ends of the state. The duo also discovered the United States International Duo Piano Competition and decided to enter. The team soon found out that they were finalists in both competitions, and competed in the final rounds to receive first place. Dr. Karen Lamberger, Ph.D from Washington University, described the team as "the epitome of what a duo team should be." Besides commenting on the "exquisite dialogue" between the two pianists, she commented that "they enjoy what they are doing and it shows!" In April, 2013 at Brigham Young University's university wide commencement ceremony, Hilary and Tiffany performed the Lutoslawski Paganini Variations for a twenty-thousand plus crowd, and a live broadcast on BYUTV. Both members of the duo received their degrees in Piano Performance in 2013 (Hilary BM, Tiffany MM). The duo has also performed as guest artists at Dixie State University and at Brigham Young University. The duo, as reported by Dr. Richard Glazier, "grabbed my attention from the beginning" and "showed great sensitivity as well as excellent technique." Hilary currently lives in Palo Alto, CA with her husband David, and is expecting a baby in February 2014. Tiffany currently lives in Valencia, Spain with her husband Manuel, and will be there until she moves to Miami, FL in the summer of 2014. Both have loved playing together as a duo team and they are excited to continue to perform together.

While developing the God-bestowed musical talents of music majors, minors, and elective students, we seek to provide an integrative understanding of the musical arts from a Christian world and life view in order to equip students to influence the world of ideas. The music major degree program is designed to prepare students for graduate study while equipping them for vocational roles in performance, church music, and education. The Belhaven University Music Department exists to multiply Christian leaders who demonstrate unquestionable excellence in the musical arts and apply timeless truths in every aspect of their artistic discipline.
