Andrew Stroud & Adam Larison, Classical Guitar

BIOS

Founded at the Florida State University in 2007, Duo 220 has quickly established itself as one of the most exciting young guitar ensembles in the United States today. With performances across the United States and in the United Kingdom, guitarists Andrew Stroud and Adam Larison have received enthusiastic responses from audiences and critics alike in such diverse venues as the Sierra Nevada Guitar Society (Reno, NV), the Corsham Arts Festival (Corsham, UK), Westminster University (London, UK), Chipola College (Marianna, FL), and the Florida

State University (Tallahassee, FL). They have also been featured on the Seven Hills Guitar Series, Guitar Sarasota concert series, and Tampa Bay Area Guitar Society concert series. About one of their performances, Larry Aynsmith of the Sierra Nevada Classical Guitar Society wrote:

"Their technique and musicianship were extraordinary. Highlights of the performance included a memorable rendering of the J.S. Bach Concerto in E Minor, BWV 974, and selections from Summer Garden Suite by Sérgio Assad. For an evening of refined and moving classical guitar performance, Duo 220 is highly recommended. Our audience agreed and gave them a standing ovation."

As an ensemble, Duo 220 has studied with some of the most respected guitar pedagogues in the US, including Professor Bruce Holzman, and received a highly transformative series of coachings from Sérgio Assad of the Assad Duo in 2008. Duo 220 strives to create programs that are new, fresh and accessible through a mixture of both standards and lesser-known works in the guitar duo repertoire, inventive and effective transcriptions, and newly commissioned works by young composers, with an emphasis on reaching as broad an audience as possible.

Andrew Stroud received his Bachelor of Music degree from Stetson University while studying with Stephen Robinson. He received Master of Music and Doctor of Music degrees from Florida State University while studying under Bruce Holman. He also taught at Florida State University as an assistant to Mr. Holzman. He has earned top prizes in the Schadt String Competition (Allentown, PA), Columbus State Guitar Symposium (Columbus, GA), and Rosario Guitar Competition (Columbia, SC). He was a finalist in the Dr. Luis Sigall Competition (Vina del Mar, Chile), Christopher Parkening Competition (Malibu, CA), and Guitare Lachine Competition (Montreal, Canada). He was also a semi-finalist at the Guitar Foundation of America Competition.

Adam Larison received his Bachelor of Music degree from Florida State University, where he studied with Bruce Holzman. He received his Master of Music degree from the San Francisco Conservatory, where he studied with Sergio Assad. He is currently a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Musical Arts at the Eastman School of Music, where he studies with Nicholas Goluses. He has earned top prizes in the Hamilton Guitar Competition (Hamilton, Canada), Great Lakes Guitar Competition (Buffalo, NY), Boston Guitar Fest (Boston, MA), and D'Addario guitar competition.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC MISSION STATEMENT

The Music Department seeks to produce transformational leaders in the musical arts who will have profound influence in homes, churches, private studios, educational institutions, and on the concert stage. While developing the God-bestowed musical talents of music majors, minors, and elective students, we seek to provide an integrative understanding of the musical arts from a Christian world and life view in order to equip students to influence the world of ideas. The music major degree program is designed to prepare students for graduate study while equipping them for vocational roles in performance, church music, and education. The Belhaven University Music Department exists to multiply Christian leaders who demonstrate unquestionable excellence in the musical arts and apply timeless truths in every aspect of their artistic discipline.

The Music Department would like to thank our many community partners for their support of Christian Arts Education at Belhaven University through their advertising in "Arts Ablaze 2013-2014." It is through these and other wonderful relationships in the greater Jackson community that makes many of our concerts possible at Belhaven. We praise God for our friends and are truly thankful for their generosity. Please mention The Arts at Belhaven University when you visit our community partners.
